Effective Date: July 1, 2009.

Explanation of State Expenditures:

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: Summary: Third class cities currently paying members for board service could have an increase in expenditures to cover the salary per diem of the new members.

Background: A third class city is defined in the Indiana Code as a city with a population of less than 35,000 persons. A poll of third class cities found that several boards of public works and safety, but not all, pay their appointed members for their service. Four cities reported annual salaries for appointed members ranging from approximately $1,000 to $8,000 per year.
